OFFICE OF THE SPECIAL OFFICER, SURPLUS STORES, SRI JAYACHAMARAJENDRA OCCUPATIONAL INSTITUTE BUILDINGS, BANGALORE.

Circular dated 19th November 1946.

Subject:—Disposal of Assets at Military Camps.

No. SS.—263. It is understood that several requisitions have been made by Departmental Officers and Heads of Offices to the Military authorities of Bangalore Sub-Area (Lands, Hirings and Disposals Service) direct regarding disposal of assets in Military Camps in Mysore State, or asking for information regarding surplus Military Stores, etc.

It is hereby explained that the correct procedure for obtaining materials from Surplus Stores, to be adopted by Departmental Officers is to place an indent for their requirements, or requisitions with the Heads of their Departments who will forward a consolidated indent to this office for placing firm orders with the Director-General of Disposals, Government of India, or the Military authorities concerned. Similarly, any correspondence regarding the information and particulars sought for, should also be made by the Departmental Officers to the Heads of their Departments who will ascertain such information or particulars from this Office. Correspondence by Heads of Offices or subordinate departmental officers with the military authorities, direct, in this respect is not to be made, as this leads to unnecessary correspondence and delay, as in most cases, information required will have been furnished to this office. Further, as per the approval of Government, the military assets in Mysore State are being taken over in bulk through this office in consultation with the Revenue Commissioner and Civil Representative, and Chief Engineer in Mysore, and the allocation of these assets to several Government Departments and indenting officers will be made by this office.

It is, therefore, requested that all references by Departmental Officers in respect of military assets and surplus stores, be made to the Heads of the Department concerned, who may consult this office in all such matters.
